Willamette University is an independent, coeducational university with a college of liberal arts and graduate programs in law, management, and teaching. Founded in 1842 by the same Methodist missionaries who developed the Oregon Territory, it is the first university in the West.

Accreditation

The University is fully accredited by the accrediting agencies for American colleges and universities. It is a charter member of the National Commission on Accrediting, and is a member of and accredited by the Northwest Association of Schools and Colleges. It is also accredited by the University Senate of the United Methodist Church. Other accreditations and memberships are listed in the Willamette University Catalog.

College of Liberal Arts

The undergraduate program, also referred to as the College of Liberal Arts, grants or has recently granted the following degrees: B.A. (Bachelor of Arts); B.S. (Bachelor of Science); B.M. (Bachelor of Music); B.M.Ed. (Bachelor of Music Education); and B.T. (Bachelor of Theatre).

College of Law

The Willamette University College of Law was established in 1883, the first in the Pacific Northwest. The College of Law has been on the American Bar Association approved list of Law Schools since 1938 and has been a member of the Association of American Law Schools since 1946. Graduates receive Doctor of Jurisprudence degree (J.D.). The College of Law also offers Master of Laws degrees (LL.M.) in transitional law and dispute resolution.

Atkinson Graduate School of Management (AGSM)

The George H. Atkinson Graduate Schools of Management was founded in 1974 as the Graduate School of Administration, renamed George H. Atkinson Graduate School of Administration in September 1975, and was given its current name in July 1981. The School offers a twenty-one month program leading to the Master of Business Administration for Business, Government and Not-for-Profit Management (M.B.A.) degree, and a twenty-four month professional program leading to the Master of Business Administration (M.B.A.) degree. Both MBA programs are accredited by the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB International), and the twenty-one month program is also accredited by the National Association of Schools of Public Affairs and Administration (NASPAA). Previous degrees granted are M.M. (Master of Management) and M.Ad. (Master of Administration).

Graduate School of Education

In Fall 1988, Willamette University began a graduate-level program in teacher preparation. Renamed in 2010, the Graduate School of Education (GSE) offers a Master of Arts in Teaching (MAT) degree, preparing students for an initial teaching license, as well as a Master of Education (M.Ed.) degree, developing educators teaching in any context. Additional programs within the GSE provide recommendations for an Administrator License (IAL & CAL) and endorsements in ESOL, SPED, and Reading. These programs are accredited by the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE) as well as the Oregon Teacher Standards and Practices Commission (TSPC).

Calendar

All undergraduate and graduate degree programs operate under the semester calendar, with units of credit as defined below.

Credits

- College of Liberal Arts: Since Fall 1967, undergraduate courses have used a credit unit which is equivalent to 4 semester hours or 6 quarter hours. Prior to that date, semester hours were used.
- College of Law: semester hours.
- AGSM: semester hours.
- MAT program: Semester hours. Prior to Fall 2010, same as Coll. of Liberal Arts.
- Graduate School of Education Professional Educator Program: quarter (term) hours through Summer 2010; semester hours effective Fall 2010. For 700-level courses with an ED prefix, quarter (term) hours through Spring 2011; semester hours effective Summer 2011.

Transcripts/Confidentiality of Records

Willamette University does not provide transcripts from other colleges, universities, or high schools or transcripts of standardized tests. Transcripts of records from other institutions must be obtained from those institutions.

Willamette University follows the guidelines of the American Association of Collegiate Registrars and Admissions Officers (AACRAO) with regard to the content and release of student records. The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 prohibits the release of this record to a third party without written authorization of the student.
